SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

God appoints Jeremiah as prophet to the nations (Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19).

Psalm

I will sing of your salvation (Psalm 71).

Second Reading

Love with its many facets is the most important of the virtues (1 Corinthians 12:31 — 13:13 [13:4-13]).

Gospel

When Jesus claims his salvific mission is for all people, not just the Jews, he is expelled by the enraged members of the Nazarean synagogue (Luke 4:21-30).

Presentation of the Lord

REFLECT

TO BE A PROPHET

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation").

This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE

February 5-6

at all Masses - Church

At the end of all Masses the weekend of February 5-6 we will celebrate our devotion to Saint Blaise with the Blessing of Throats.

Saint Blaise was a bishop and martyr in fourth century Armenia, and is held in special honor by the Eastern Church. For decades Catholics in the United States have sought the blessing of Saint Blaise for physical healing. Catholics seek the intercession of all the Saints because of their holy lives and legendary acts.

We invite you to receive this special blessing as a sign and example of God's power for all those who give themselves entirely to Jesus.

GOOD SHEPHERD

Catholic Community

Dear Parishioner ,

As you know, the faith formation of your children begins at home with your example and the decisions you make for their development. The parish is an extension of the home as we provide for their religious education. Our Catholic school, Holy Trinity, is a ministry of the parish and provides the most complete religious formation you can offer your children.

For this reason, I would like to encourage you to consider sending your children to Holy Trinity Catholic School.

The school integrates the faith formation throughout the academic program creating an experience that lasts a lifetime and makes a real difference for your children.

Our parish supports families that send their children to Holy Trinity through a special tuition assistance fund. This makes a Catholic education possible for many children whose parents might not otherwise be able to afford one.

Please prayerfully consider this choice for your family.

Holy Trinity is offering private tours for all Good Shepherd parishioners who may want to explore this possibility. Please see the information sheet about the school on the following pages along with the Admissions Office contact at the bottom of this letter to assist you in making an appointment for your private tour.

I whole-heartedly recommend Holy Trinity Catholic School to you for your children.

In Jesus Christ our Savior,

Fr. Michael J. Higgins, TOR
Pastor
