REFLECT

IN THE DESERT

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, and then the devil tested him. Moses and the Israelites had been in the desert for forty years before being led to the land of milk and honey. There were times when they called out to God, sure that, as Saint Paul wrote to the Romans, "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." We sometimes spend time in the desert as well. Not a literal desert most of the time, but a desert in which it seems difficult to perceive God's presence, times when we face difficulty and are tempted to leave God's ways behind. On this First Sunday of Lent, Jesus shows us what to do in these moments: stand firm and trust in God.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Participation

You come to Mass not as a spectator, but as a participant. Vatican II's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy says in paragraph 14 that the full, conscious, and active participation of the people is their right and obligation as the priestly people of God (1 Peter 2:9).

The phrase "full, conscious, and active participation" expands a sentiment expressed by Pope Pius X in On Sacred Music, where he urged the assembled faithful to acquire the true Christian spirit from its source: "active participation" in the mysteries and solemn prayer of the Church. When he wrote this in 1903, most people prayed devoutly at a typical Mass, but not yet fully engaged with the liturgical action exercised by the ministers in the sanctuary.

When the Second Vatican Council promoted this idea in the 1960s, it called for a participation that was not only "active," but "full" and "conscious" as well; it gave these examples for its execution: acclamations, responses, psalms, antiphons, hymns, actions, gestures, and bodily attitudes (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 30). In 1967, the Sacred Congregation of Rites issued an instruction on sacred music, citing these passages from the Council, and calling for both an internal and an external participation of the people.

As a result, when you come to Mass you have words to say, songs to sing, gestures to make, and postures to assume. But all these external actions should be supported by an internal sense that gives them deliberate meaning.

This is why the famous Catholic "Sunday obligation" appears in the Code of Canon Law: not an obligation to "go" to Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation - but to "participate" at Mass on those days. The obligation is more than just being there. It is to sing and respond from the heart.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

What are different ways our family participates in Mass?

Are there ways we could participate more fully at Mass?

What does it mean to respond to the Mass with our heart?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

First Sunday of Lent

Grant, almighty God,
through the yearly observances of holy Lent,
that we may grow in understanding of the riches hidden in Christ
and by worthy conduct pursue their effects.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Spotlight on our Little Lambs Teachers

Samantha Mahon Yearlings Class. (2 year old class.)

Samantha Mahon is a second year teacher here at Little Lambs. Samantha previously taught middle school for five years. Samantha's time in middle school surrounded by, and navigating, big feelings has shown to come in handy helping our littlest with their biggest emotions. She has a degree in Art Education and is certified to teach math for grades 5-8 and art for early childhood-12th grade. Samantha has a way of finding humor even in tough situations. She has shared, "Finding the humor helps make challenging situations easier." Samantha has been married to her husband, Cody, for 8 years and they have two children, Jensen, age 5, and Ainslee, 7 months old. Jensen is a current student here at Little Lambs. Samantha came to love the program first as a parent, and soon wanted to join the team. She is an outdoors enthusiast and recently took up roller skating. Samantha loves every little two-year-old that walks through her door as if they were her own child. She has shared that watching them grow makes her heart swell with pride. She loves working in conjunction with the parents to instill a strong foundation and love for Jesus Christ in each of the children.

Sarah Swinford Yearlings Class. (2 year old class.)

Sarah Swinford is in her second year at Little Lambs in the Yearlings class. Ever since joining the team last year, she's loved the community at Good Shepard and couldn't see herself anywhere else. After this semester, she will have her Associate of Arts degree and will continue on to obtain her Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education. She is originally from Dallas but has lived in Fort Worth, TX for the past two years with her family. She enjoys fishing and reading in her free time as well as spending time with family and baking. Sarah enjoys helping the Yearlings discover their independence and how strong they are "all by themselves." She has recently taken up the lost art of cross-stitch and quilting. Sarah has shared that when she comes to Little Lambs, it doesn't even feel like she's coming to work. Sarah loves Little Lambs because it offers her the opportunity to educate our youngest little ones about Jesus Christ and watch them grow in their own personal relationship with God.
