REFLECT

A GLIMPSE OF GOD

Have you ever had a glimpse of God? Perhaps you perceived God's presence in a quiet moment of prayer, a tender conversation with a loved one, or a difficult situation that was resolved unexpectedly. Peter, James, and John in today's Gospel were given a glimpse of Christ's glory on the mountain, as Jesus was transfigured before them. Abram put his faith in God and saw God's power in a wondrous sign of covenant love. We have the promise of eternal life with God in heaven. This promise brings with it responsibility, as people who are called to live as Christ's very own in the world. Lent is the perfect time to resolve to listen more attentively to the Lord and follow God's ways, assured that in doing so, we put our faith in the one, true, and faithful God.

Distractions

"Don't pray at Mass. Pray the Mass."

That piece of advice disoriented many Catholics in the 1960s when the Church invited us to take a different role at Mass. Catholics used to go to church carrying prayer books and rosaries so they could say their own prayers while Mass was going on. They were asked to set aside many of the prayers they used to say privately in order to take part in the prayer going on around them publicly. When you visit someone, you do not immediately pick up the phone to visit someone else. Having a conversation is good, but having the wrong one will distract us. While at Mass we don't avoid prayer; we take part in a specific prayer.

Distractions come in many other forms, too. You will find people reading the bulletin, balancing their checkbook, cutting their nails, and adjusting their makeup during the homily, the Scripture readings, or the Eucharistic Prayer. Occasionally a cell phone rings. Sometimes it belongs to the priest! If he answers it, you know that distractions have gotten way out of hand.

Sometimes we bring our own distractions. You may come to church with the intention of joining in the prayer, but your mind begins to wander to the events of the day ahead, the memory of the day past, the fears you harbor, the loves you enjoy, the appearance of the church or the behavior of worshipers.

Nonetheless, our common goal is to pray the Mass. It is hard, but two activities will help: preparation at home and concentration at church. At home, you can prepare for Mass by reading the Scriptures beforehand and making time for personal prayer. Then when you arrive at church, the skills you honed at private prayer will enhance your communal prayer. During the Mass, concentrate on the texts you say or sing. Think about the meaning of the words. Listen attentively when one of the ministers speaks. Observe the silences with reverence. Distractions will be fewer when our preparation and concentration grow stronger.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

How has praying at Mass changed through the decades?

What are some examples of distractions at Mass?

How can our family help limit our mind being distracted during Mass?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Second Sunday of Lent

O God, who have commanded us to listen to your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly by your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

A Peak Inside

Holy Trinity Catholic School

When there are so many choices of where to send your child to school, why does a Catholic education make a difference? Below you'll find examples of real questions and comments by current HTCS students and how these are answered within the classroom.

Question from a 6th grader: Why is the bible I received at my Christian summer camp different than my Catholic bible at school?

Teacher's response: There was a time in Church history called the Protestant Reformation, when 7 books were taken out of the official canon of Sacred Scripture. Our Catholic bible includes all 73 books!

Comment from a 7th grader: Nobody reads poetry!

Teacher's Response: We read and listen to the Psalms every week at Mass! Isn't it wonderful that you can enjoy poetry in scripture?!

Spotlight on our Little Lambs Teachers

Leslie Maxwell Catechist

Leslie has been teaching with Little Lambs and in K-4 faith formation for 11 years at Good Shepherd. She has attended Good Shepherd since 1999 and came into the church just before she and Ryan married in 2004. They have been married for almost 18 years and have 6 children. The oldest Maxwells attended little lambs from 2007-2010 and now the youngest, Charlotte, is in the Yearlings program. Leslie is a certified level 1 catechist for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Last summer, she graduated with a degree in business. Her hobbies include: leaving wet clothes in the washer and seeing how many times it's forgotten and rewashed before being put away. In her spare time, she can be found attending every football, cross country, basketball, track, wrestling, and soccer event across the Keller Central feeder pattern. Leslie finds her peace while working with the children in the Atrium. She loves watching the children discover Christ while they are working. Leslie has shared that when she is here at Good Shepherd, she is "home." She loves this community, and being part of it is one of the things she holds most dear.

Amy Crissey: 2-5 year old Teacher

Amy is super excited to be the newest addition to the Little Lambs staff! She has been married to Brian for 20 years and comes to us as a mom of 7, including identical twins, Clare and Hope, who are current Little Lambs students. Before staying home with her children, Amy taught 2nd grade at Patterson Elementary School. She moved to the area this past year and has fallen in love with Good Shepard Catholic Community. Amy loves to laugh. Amy loves to look in the eyes of each and every child who comes to school each day and connect with them personally. She wants them to know God made them and He loves them. She enjoys attending daily Mass and is a Secular Franciscan. She loves helping at a Catholic school where she can share her love of Christ and pray with the students. She feels incredibly blessed to be a part of such a special preschool full of precious children. Amy can be found cherishing the day-to-day moments with her own children at home. They spend a lot of time outside swimming or chasing their silly chickens around their yard.

Art & Environment Fresh Flowers

Would you like to commemorate special days in the year? Donations for flowers on our altars or at the Blessed Mother will be to honor or memorialize the special people and events in our lives. Flowers can fittingly mark the anniversary of a birth, baptism, confirmation, marriage or death, as well as expressions of thanksgiving during Easter, Mother's or Father's Day, and Christmas. Arrangements will be of seasonal flowers only, no exotics, and are ordered by the Art & Environment committee only.

Donations of any amount are accepted. Outside of the seasons of Easter and Christmas no more than 3 arrangements can be on the church altar, two placed near the candles and one in front of the Ambo. The parish bulletin will have acknowledgements of these donations on a monthly basis.

There will be no floral arrangements in the church during the season of Lent. The donations made during Lent are for the Easter season flowers and plants.
