SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

The LORD God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15) or Exodus 17:3-7.

Psalm

The Lord is kind and merciful (Psalm 103).

Second Reading

We are not to grumble like the people with Moses in the desert (1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12)

Gospel

If you do not repent, you will all perish (Luke 13:1-9).

REFLECT

HOLY GROUND

Moses met God in a most astounding way in the bush that was burning but not consumed by fire. Moses clearly had a powerful encounter with the Lord. He even felt bold enough to ask God's name, something unheard of among his people at the time—God's name was unspeakable. Moses stood on holy ground. Do we not also stand on holy ground? As people who are created in God's image and drawn to Christ through the waters of Baptism, we have been filled with God's grace and goodness. The ground of our lives is holy. Lent is a time when we are called to open our minds and hearts to Christ, rely on God's patient mercy, and to grow as God's holy people.

WORSHIP

HOW OFTEN IN THESE SITUATIONS MUST MARY HAVE RETURNED INWARDLY TO THE HOUR WHEN GOD'S ANGEL HAD SPOKEN TO HER, PONDERING AFRESH THE GREETING: 'REJOICE, FULL OF GRACE!' AND THE CONSOLING WORDS: 'DO NOT BE AFRAID!' THE ANGEL DEPARTS; HER MISSION REMAINS, AND WITH IT MATURES HER INNER CLOSENESS TO GOD, A CLOSENESS THAT IN HER HEART SHE IS ABLE TO see and touch.

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Reverence

Present at the Eucharist as the people of God, we share an awesome task. We the baptized are the ones God has chosen to be a royal priesthood. At Eucharist, the task of the whole people is priestly. We give thanks to God and offer the perfect sacrifice, the Body and Blood of Christ, together with ourselves. It is not the presider alone who makes this offering-it is all of us. Consequently, attention to our duty is critical for a meaningful celebration of the Eucharist. The Church asks us to act with reverence - for the Eucharist, for our role in it, and for the community. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal says the faithful should endeavor to make their role clear by their deep religious sense and their charity toward all who participate with them in the celebration (95). Reverence and charity may take different forms. Entering the church, we greet those with whom we will celebrate this Mass. We sign ourselves with water that recalls our priestly mission. We bow to the altar where our thanksgiving will be made or we genuflect to the tabernacle if it is central in the sanctuary. We sing the songs. We make the responses. We listen to God's word. We pray all the prayers, even those spoken by the presider alone. We share the Eucharist in faith. At times, our actions may threaten the task we perform. When we needlessly attend to other matters or neglect the songs and silences and prayers, we make it difficult for ourselves and for others to carry the reverence and charity needed for our task. Mass is not like watching a band perform music; it's like playing an instrument in the band. Sometimes you play with everyone else; sometimes you rest; sometimes you solo. But we all make the music. It requires attention and teamwork. To carry out our priestly mission we practice reverence for God and charity for one another. If someone else's idea of reverence conflicts with yours, practice charity. It helps us fulfill our awesome task.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

What does it mean to be reverent?

How do we show reverence in our Sanctuary? How do we show reverence in our community?

As a family, what are some ways we can increase our reverence for the Eucharist?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Third Sunday of Lent

O God, author of every mercy and of all goodness, who in fasting, prayer and almsgiving
have shown us a remedy for sin,
look graciously on this confession of our lowliness,
that we, who are bowed down by our conscience,
may always be lifted up by your mercy.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Spotlight on our Little Lambs Teachers

Amy Polivka: Sheep Class (3 and 4-5 Years old)

Amy holds several degrees; Exercise Science, Physical Education K-12, and a Masters in Education. Before she had her own family, she spent her career in Family Corporate Fitness/Management. She also spent over 5 years subbing in KISD, mostly in PreK classrooms. Amy's hobbies include, running, lifting weights, reading, watching hallmark channel, and family time. Her family is busy most weekends watching her daughters play sports, mainly volleyball. Taylor, 16, a junior, at Keller High School, and Addi, 13, an eighth grader at Keller Middle School. She has been married to Fred for nearly 20 years this year. Amy and Fred are both from Nebraska. They love living in Texas. Amy loves sharing Christ's love with her students, and makes a point every day, telling each of her student's that she loves them. As you might expect, from the Physical Education background, she brings a high-level of energy and fun, and smiles to the classroom. You can hear her giggle down the hallway, and we can see the delight in each little face when she smiles at her students.

Karen Durham: Sheep Class (3 and 4-5 years old)

Karen has been with Little Lambs since 2018. She comes to us after spending a few years at home with her own children, Isabel, Luke, and Nora. All attend St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Keller. Karen graduated from University of Texas, Austin. She and her husband Shawn, married 15 years, enjoy vacationing in the mountains and watching their girls dance ballet and their son play baseball and soccer. Karen is also an amateur photographer. Of course, her favorite thing to photograph is her own beautiful children. Karen spent 7 years teaching elementary Special Education and 3 years as a high school educational diagnostician before staying home with her kiddos. She was thrilled to return to the classroom here at Little Lambs. She says that teaching children at Little Lambs is just the best because she enjoys watching how they see the world around them and how they share their love for God. Karen has a special, quiet calmness about her. She is able to bring this to the classroom, where you will find a peaceful and well-organized learning environment.
