REFLECT

LOST AND FOUND

The parable of the father and his sons is one of the most familiar of all of Jesus' stories. The father in the parable is lavish in forgiveness and revels in the return of his young son, who was lost and now is found. The older son is also lost—lost in his refusal to forgive, lost in his failure to grasp his father's generous spirit. The Israelites spent many years lost in the desert, seeking the land of milk and honey, yet often failing to seek the God who delivered and fed them. We are sometimes lost as well. We lose sight of the Lord and the Lord's ways. God never loses sight of us, however. God waits, ready for us to come to our senses, ready to welcome us back with open arms.

Processions in Holy Week

You may feel you deserve applause when you get out of bed or off the couch and go to church. After all, many Catholics don't even do that much. You do. During Holy Week, however, going to church is not enough. Just when you think you can settle into your favorite pew, you will be asked to stand up, leave your place, and walk. Many Catholics resist. They become pew potatoes. But those who join the processions of Holy Week will find their faith and charity rewarded.

On Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord, for example, the Mass may begin outdoors. Instead of going directly into the church as usual, you may gather in another area - indoors or out. The priest will bless the palm branches; he or the deacon will proclaim the Gospel, and then all process into the church acclaiming Christ.

On Thursday of the Lord's Supper, the evening Mass does not conclude in the usual way. Instead, a procession forms right after Communion. The Blessed Sacrament is brought to a special chapel or tabernacle. You may be invited to join this procession, singing hymns of praise and moving to a place where you may pray privately in the course of the night.

During the Good Friday liturgy, you will be invited forward to adore the Cross.

At the Easter Vigil, as on Palm Sunday, you may be invited to start Mass outside the church. There, a fire may be burning, signifying the Resurrection of Christ, the light that shatters darkness. Carrying candles, you enter the church following a pillar of fire, as our ancestors marched from slavery to freedom.

The processions of Holy Week draw us into the mystery of the Death and Resurrection of Christ. It is worthwhile to get up out of the pew.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

What are the different Services that make up Holy Week?

Do we have any special family traditions during Holy Week? If not, could we start any?

We at GSCC invite you and your family to attend all of the Triduum Services (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil Mass). It will allow you to fully experience Holy Week.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fourth Sunday of Lent

O God, who through your Word
reconcile the human race to yourself in a wonderful way,
grant, we pray,
that with prompt devotion and eager faith
the Christian people may hasten toward the solemn celebrations to come.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

COMING UP AT GSCC

BAPTISM PREP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

We are seeking parishioners who are eager to present the basic teaching on baptism at our baptismal preparation classes. These classes occur in the mornings on the first Saturday of the month and exists to lead parents to understand their role as "first teachers of their child in the ways of faith" (Rite of Baptism for Children, Final Blessing 105). We currently have a small handful of catechists to accomplish this task and are eager to invite more to the baptism team! Please submit your interest by emailing Nic Gutierrez, Director of Faith Formation – ngutierrez@gsc.net

Please bring wrapped Easter baskets to the Good Shepherd Outreach Center located at 6125 Colleyville Blvd on April 2 from 9:00am - 3:00pm

Thank you so much for your generosity!

COLLEGE CARE PACKAGES

Sunday, April 3

2:30pm - St. Maria Goretti

Moms, Dads, and Grandparents! Please join us on Sunday, April 3rd at 2:30pm in St. Maria Goretti (Room 2) to assemble care packages for our college students and children serving in the military. This fun event is a great way to meet others from church with similar age children. Our goal is to keep our young adults connected to their home parish. Wear a shirt from your child's school or branch of service. Medium USPS boxes will be provided. Parents will be responsible for mailing their box(es). To make things as close to even for everyone, please sign up for one or a combination of items that equal around $20/care package. Feel free to bring items not listed here, I have made several suggestions. In addition, please let other "new college parents" know about this event. There is no limit to how many can participate, but this sign up will close on Friday, April 1st. Sign up at gsc.net/ccpackages.

SYNOD: PARISH LISTENING SESSION

Sunday, April 3

1:00pm - Church

In answer to Pope Francis' call for a Synod, the Church has requested that all dioceses host a series of "listening sessions" at each parish so that all of God's people can be represented, walking together as a Church with the Holy Spirit. The theme of the Synod is "For Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission". This Synod is intended as a Synodal Process. The aim of this synodal process is not to provide a temporary or one-time experience of synodality (a term "often used to describe the process of fraternal collaboration and discernment), but rather to provide an opportunity for the entire People of God to discern together how to move forward on the path towards being a more synodal Church in the long-term." Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission: "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has been made, the Church will be able to learn through Her experience which processes can help Her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open Herself to mission.

For more on this important process, we ask that you visit the Vatican.va website and read up on SYNODALITY IN THE LIFE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH. You can also read more about the diocesan level at fwdioce.org/synod or the national level at uscbb.org/synod.

Spotlight on our Little Lambs Teachers

Mary Nan Castro: Catechist

Mary Nan has been teaching preschool for many years. She comes to us with a wealth of experience from both the secular world of preschool and from other Christian and Catholic schools. She has worked at Good Shepherd for over 12 years. Mary Nan will joke that she has done about every job there is to do at Little Lambs. She has had many hats. She began her time with us first a substitute, and then taught math and literature. Later, Mary Nan became the art teacher, where she was able to share her talents and love of God's beauty by helping the children explore their inner creativity. Mary Nan also taught music and she heads our Outdoor Learning Center in our garden. She is now one of our catechists. Mary Nan is certified in Level 1 and Level 2 for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Each year, as she discerns retirement, she feels called to keep serving us. Mary Nan recently said, "I feel so blessed to still be teaching. I knew the Lord would send me to this program, to show little ones God's love for them at such an early age. I thank God every day for sending me these little ones." Mary Nan spends most of her free time enjoying her beautiful family she shares with her husband, Mickey, of 45 years. She has 4 adult children and 7 grandchildren; all keep her very busy! Mary Nan is an avid reader and her favorite Saint is St. Padre Pio.

Jill Wheeler: Program Coordinator

Jill has been with Little Lambs since 2016. She taught in the 2-year-old class for four years, and has held her current position for the last two. Jill is a certified Level 1 Catechist for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Jill grew up in Northern Illinois; she taught CCD and Religious Education while attending high school and college, and throughout her life. She especially loves helping during Vacation Bible School weeks. Before having her own children, she enjoyed an exciting, fast-paced, adventurous career, traveling the world working in commercial and corporate aviation. Jill utilizes the logistical and procedural skills learned in aviation as she manages the happenings at Little Lambs. Jill and her husband, Eric "Wheels", are both from the same hometown. They have two children who attend St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Keller. They are a military family and moved here to Texas after her husband retired from 25 years with the US Air Force. Jill and her family love the beach, and they get away every chance they have to spend time on the seashore. After starting her own family, she entered the Early Childhood hallways and never looked back. As a huge advocate for Catholic Education, she loves exploring God's world and sharing His love with the littlest blessings.
