-St. Louis de Montfort

St. Mark, the Evangelist

REFLECT

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

First Communion Requirements

To share in Communion for the first time, children must have "sufficient knowledge and careful preparation so as to understand the mystery of Christ according to their capacity" (Code of Canon Law, 913). They must also be able to receive Communion "with faith and devotion" (can. 913).

Our Church expects a child to discern ordinary food from the Eucharistic bread. That ability comes at the age "of the use of reason." We generally place that at about age seven, but it has never been defined because children mature so independently. If children cannot make the distinction, they should not come to the Eucharistic table. However, infant Communion is common among other Christian churches.

Children should understand the mystery of Christ "according to their capacity." They need not comprehend the total mystery. (Who of us can?) They should come to the table with a spiritual disposition. Communion requires not just using reason, but having faith as well. Formerly, children were expected to adore the host. That requirement fit an age when the faithful received Communion infrequently and attended Mass to adore the host more than to share in Communion. Citing a different canon (914), the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "Children must go to the sacrament of Penance before receiving Holy Communion for the first time" (can. 1457). Even so, some may find it difficult to argue that every child must confess sins before receiving Communion.

The Church obliges the confession of serious sins, but recommends the confession of venial sins (can. 988). Parents, catechists, and the pastor should carefully discern with the child and prepare them for the sacrament so he or she is properly disposed for its celebration.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

What does it mean to receive communion with "faith and devotion"?

In what way is Eucharistic bread not just ordinary food?

How can we all prepare ourselves to receive the Eucharist?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Second Sunday of Easter (or Sunday of Divine Mercy)

God of everlasting mercy, who in the very recurrence of the paschal feast kindle the faith of the people you have made your own,
increase, we pray, the grace you have bestowed,
that all may grasp and rightly understand
in what font they have been washed,
by whose Spirit they have been reborn,
by whose Blood they have been redeemed.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
