REFLECT

GOD'S OVERFLOWING KINDNESS

The superabundance of God's kindness ties all of today's readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today's Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—"everything in the universe"—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever.

Reconciliation

The Catholic Church treasures the Sacrament of Penance. Many parishes offer a communal celebration of penance, especially during Advent and Lent. But private reconciliation is usually available every week of the year.

If you'd like to celebrate the Sacrament of Penance, here's what to do:

- Prepare. Prayerfully recall your sins. Some will be specific actions. Some represent a more general pattern of behavior.
- Go to the priest. Visit when he's in the Reconciliation Room (Confessional) at your parish or ask for an appointment. You may either kneel anonymously behind a screen or sit in a chair where you may speak face to face.
- Be welcome. You and the priest may greet each other. Make the Sign of the Cross. He may urge you to have confidence in God. You may indicate the interval since your last confession or anything else that will help. Just use common sense. Either you or the priest may read from Scripture.
- Confess your sins. Some penitents begin with a formula like "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned," but you don't have to. This is not indicated in the rite. Let the priest know your sins. You may discuss the sins you confess so the priest can give you the best counsel.
- Receive a penance. The priest will recommend some action after you leave to indicate to God the sincerity in your heart. Usually he suggests prayer or self-denial. If it sounds difficult, let him know.
- Pray for forgiveness. The priest may invite you to say a prayer of sorrow aloud. If you remember the Act of Contrition, you may use it. But you may also speak simply from your heart.
- Receive absolution. This is the best part. The priest proclaims absolution, and God forgives your sins.
- Conclude. The priest may say, "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good." If so, answer, "His mercy endures for ever" (Rite of Penance, 47). Or he may conclude informally.
- Change! Go forth, and with God's help, begin to live a new life of freedom from the slavery of sin!

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

How do you prepare to confess your sins when you go to Reconciliation?

Parents, when was the last time you went to Reconciliation? Have you ever gone as a family?

Have you ever received great advice from a Priest in the confessional that you would like to share with your family?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Third Sunday of Easter

May your people exult for ever, O God,
in renewed youthfulness of spirit,
so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption,
we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
