REFLECT

THE SPIRIT'S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as "the second person of the Trinity," but referring also to the Spirit as a "person" comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a "person" in recognizable human form. Today's readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit's active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul's letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and "workings." Finally, in John's Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.

Pious Exercises

Pious exercises are ways that many Christians express their faith either in public or in private. They are not part of the official liturgy of the Church, but they harmonize with it. When prayed well, popular devotions stimulate people's faith and help them worship God even better in the liturgy. These devotions cover a broad range of interests - the Sacred Heart, the Immaculate Conception, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the Rosary, to name but a few. They become "popular" as they spread among people who find them helpful to develop their piety as individuals or in groups. Many pious exercises are shared by a large number of people, and their practice has been passed on from one generation to the next. These developments show the value of such devotions.

Prior to the Second Vatican Council, pious exercises profoundly formed the spiritual lives of Catholics partly because they could be prayed in vernacular languages. Although Catholics prayed at Mass when it was always in Latin, they have participated more fully, consciously, and actively ever since the Mass has become available to them in their own tongue. The liturgical renewal appropriately drew Catholics more deeply into the liturgy, which is the most important form of common prayer.

Some pious exercises have become less available and less practiced because devotion to the Mass has increased. However, Catholics are still encouraged to develop pious exercises to balance a healthy spiritual life. The Vatican has dealt with this matter in its Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy: Principles and Guidelines. It indicates that these devotions are at their best when they lead people back to the Mass and other forms of liturgical prayer.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

What are some pious exercises you know about?

How can we as a family incorporate one pious exercise into our lives this week?

Does GSCC offer any pious exercises for our family to attend?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK Pentecost Sunday

O God, who by the mystery of today's great feast sanctify your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of believers.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently open for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more and register at gscc.net/formation/little-lambs.
