The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

REFLECT

THE GIFT OF THE EUCHARIST

Today we hear how Abram encounters Melchizedek, "king of Salem . . . and a priest of God Most High" (Genesis 14:18). Melchizedek appears nowhere else in scripture, but is nonetheless significant. Psalm 110 declares of the great King David, "You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek," a description later given (in the letter to the Hebrews) to Christ as High Priest.

Early Christians saw in Melchizedek's bread and wine the bread and wine of the Eucharist; Paul's account of the Last Supper (in today's second reading) is the oldest one in scripture. In the Gospel, Luke describes Jesus providing bread for a crowd in words similar to Paul's, words still used by the Church: Jesus takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it. Together, these three readings reveal how Christian priesthood, Christ's Real Presence, and the call to serve those in need are all found in the gift of the Eucharist.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Original Novena

A venerable Catholic tradition sets aside nine days of prayer as a novena. Novenas enjoyed a more popular history as recently as the last generation of Catholics, but this generation continues the custom in various places, on different occasions. Praying consistently on a particular theme for nine days brings a comfortable spiritual rhythm that allows the prayer to intensify from day to day. Far from causing boredom, these become occasions for spiritual repetition, for deepening our relationship with God.

The mother of all novenas dates back to the original disciples. According to Acts of the Apostles (1:3), Jesus ascended into heaven forty days after the Resurrection. The disciples then entered a period of intense prayer (1:13-14). On Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Passover, the Holy Spirit came to them all (2:1). Those nine days situated between Ascension and Pentecost became the prototype of the novena. Our liturgy today still honors the original idea.

In some places, the Ascension is celebrated on the Sunday before Pentecost. Moving the Ascension from a Thursday to a Sunday permits a greater number of believers to celebrate one of the major mysteries in the life of Christ. Our Church has long permitted countries to make this change if they wish. You don't end up with the same number of days between the two events, but the spirit of the period remains in place. Even Luke himself seems unsure about the exact number of days intervening here. Although he seems clear in Acts about the sequence of events, he follows a very different chronology in his own Gospel, where he implies that the Ascension took place on the same day as Easter (24:51). Other evangelists concur.

Nonetheless, our liturgical year in the Catholic Church has always adopted the chronology from Acts as the one we follow year after year. It gets us into the spirit of intense, ever-deepening prayer.

As your parish marks the days between Ascension and Pentecost, it prays daily, intently, for the coming of the Holy Spirit into your midst today.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion,
grant us, we pray,

so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.

Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently open for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more and register at gscn.net/formation/little-lambs.
