SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm

Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading

All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel

To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF July 10, 2022

- Sunday: St. Veronica Giuliani
- Monday: St. Benedict
- Tuesday: Sts. John Jones and John Wall
- Wednesday: St. Henry
- Thursday: St. Kateri Tekakwitha
- Friday: St. Bonaventure
- Saturday: Our Lady of Mount Carmel

"I AM NOT MY OWN. I HAVE GIVEN
MYSELF TO JESUS. HE MUST BE MY ONLY
LOVE."

-St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

REFLECT

RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as "the image of the invisible God," the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

First Letter of Peter

You will hear passages from the First Letter of Peter at Sunday Masses of the Easter season during Year A of the three-year lectionary cycle. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults says that the Easter readings of Year A are particularly suitable for continuing the formation of the newly baptized. One reason is that Year A features the First Letter of Peter. It serves as the Second Reading at Sunday Mass for well over a month.

The letter was written for newly baptized Christians of the first century. It explains the meaning of their Baptism, helps them establish their Christian identity, reviews the ways they should now behave, and points to their eternal life in Christ. These themes still help newly baptized Christians today reflect on their identity, and they form a good review for more experienced Christians as well. The teachings of this letter draw from the Scriptures and from the liturgy of Baptism. They show how the plan of God is being fulfilled, how our rituals express our belief, and what they demand in the way we treat others. The First Letter of Peter models the catechesis that Christians still offer and receive.

The excerpts we hear at Mass make these key points. We praise God who has given us a new birth to a living hope through the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. The Blood of Christ redeems us. The suffering of Christ instructs us. We have become a "chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation," a people possessed by God, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). Even when life is hard, we can explain the reason for our hope. Glory awaits those who share in the sufferings of Christ.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

When are we going to hear readings from the First Letter of Peter during Mass?

Why are these readings so important to the newly baptized?

What does St. Peter say about the sufferings of Christ?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who show the light of your truth to those who go astray,
so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians
the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently open for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more and register at gsc.net/formation/little-lambs.
