SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Abraham and Sarah show hospitality to messengers of the LORD (Genesis 18:1-10a).

Psalm

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord (Psalm 15).

Second Reading

The mystery hidden from generations past has been manifested; it is Christ in you, the hope for glory (Colossians 1:24-28).

Gospel

Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. Mary has chosen the better part (Luke 10:38-42).

REFLECT

PRAYER AND SERVICE

How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?

Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel!

We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be?

PONDER

How has the Lord shown favor to me?

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Thessalonians

As the Church year draws to its close, it is likely that Catholics attending Sunday Mass will hear a second reading from one of St. Paul's two letters to the Thessalonians. Excerpts from the First Letter are proclaimed through a stretch of four Sundays near the end of the lectionary's Year A, and passages from the Second Letter are heard on three Sundays near the end of Year C.

Many scholars believe that these were Paul's first efforts at writing epistles. They also believe that the Gospels were first written down some decades after Paul died. Therefore, the First Letter to the Thessalonians is probably the oldest written book of the New Testament, dating to about AD 50.

The city of Thessaloniki still stands as a large important port in Greece, the populous center of Macedonia. Paul had visited there on his missionary journeys, where he and Silas won over many Jewish and Gentile converts, both men and women. He also made some enemies, and this perhaps convinced him to stay in touch with the flock he formed.

The letters reveal a belief that Jesus' return was imminent. They also comfort readers with a message about the salvation of believers who have already died. These themes make the letters particularly appropriate for the end of the Church year, when the faithful turn their attention to the Second Coming of Christ. Passages from the First Letter to the Thessalonians also appear on a Sunday of Advent in Years B and C, and as one option for a reading at funerals.

Although Paul was wrong about how quickly Christ would return, these letters remind us to behave our best at all times - as though the end is near.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

When do we hear the readings from St. Paul's letters to the Thessalonians?

Why was it important for St. Paul to write his letters to them?

How do these letters give us insight into the early church?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Show favor, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace,
that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity,
they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

CRHP MEN'S & WOMEN'S RETREATS

Women's Retreat: August 6-7 | 7am-9pm | GSCC Campus

Men's Retreat: August 20-21 | 7am-9pm | GSCC Campus

Christ Renews His Parish is a spiritual renewal weekend designed to help individuals grow in their personal relationship with Jesus Christ and with others in their faith community. It is an excellent opportunity for Catholics to renew their understanding of the basic beliefs and traditions of their faith. It is a time to relax, pray, think about our priorities and refresh ourselves spiritually. More importantly, it allows you the opportunity to examine, rediscover, and intensify your personal relationship with Christ. This is a two-day retreat unlike any you have previously attended. Parishioners share with one another the ways they have found meaning, hope, peace and love in their lives. They even share laughs along the way. The experience is personal, inspirational, and fulfilling. Many participants feel that the weekend experience has been among the most powerful and positive of their lives. The atmosphere is casual and you will begin friendships that will last a lifetime. Many of your fellow parishioners, who have previously attended, will be happy to share their experience.

In support of these retreats we are urging all CRHP Alumni to wear their red CRHP shirts to Mass on July 23-24. We encourage you to engage parishioners and tell them about the power of the CRHP experience.

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently open for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more and register at gsc.net/formation/little-lambs.
