REFLECT

CONVERSATION WITH GOD

Prayer is our focus this weekend. In the Gospel, Jesus gives his disciples, and us, the Lord's Prayer, which we have cherished through the centuries. The first two words encompass much about our faith—unity among all Christians (Our), and a sense that we are in a deeply bonded relationship with God (Father).

In Genesis, we see Abraham in conversational prayer, in his creaturely humility before his Creator, seeking mercy and compassion for the innocent. The psalm is a lyrical prayer of thanksgiving and praise for the God who answered the sincere prayers of a people who had called out for help, showing them mercy. In Luke's Gospel, the disciples want to pray like Jesus, with the same intimacy—to experience God as Abba in the depths of their being.

Do we try to talk to God? Do we listen for answers? This relationship is always a work in progress.

PONDER

In what ways can I use the good things of this world without clinging to them?

WORSHIP

The war of the Evil One against the Lord is his war against the family,

AND THE WAR OF THE EVIL ONE AGAINST THE
FAMILY IS THE CORE OF HIS WAR AGAINST THE LORD. BECAUSE THE FAMILY IS THE IMAGE OF GOD,

-ST. CHARBEL MAKHLOUF

Gospel of Mark

Mark is the Gospel featured at Mass in Year B of the three-year cycle of Sunday readings. Notable exceptions occur during Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and across five weeks in summer, when we hear the Bread of Life discourse from John. Mark is the shortest of the four Gospels.

Mark was probably the first Gospel written. Parts of it appear in both Matthew and Luke, who also used other materials that do not appear in Mark. Because Mark included Jesus' saying about the destruction of the Temple, a prediction fulfilled in the year 70, the date of composition is thought to be around then.

This Gospel never identifies its own author. An early tradition gave him the name Mark, a companion of Peter in Rome. Although the work may have been written in Rome by someone who heard the stories of Jesus (already being circulated), the name of its author is uncertain. The Gospel author writes with a sense of urgency. The audience who first received the book was probably a community of gentile Christians, which would account for the author's frequent explanation of Jewish customs and Aramaic words.

Mark's main point is to proclaim that Jesus is the Son of God. We hear the proclamation in the opening verse and again near the end, from the centurion at the Cross. In the middle of the Gospel stands Peter's declaration that Jesus is the Messiah. In the second half of the Gospel, Jesus predicts his passion, death, and Resurrection three times. The earliest version of Mark ended with the news of the Resurrection, but without stories of Jesus' appearances. Accounts of those events were later appended to Mark's conclusion. Mark does not relate the story of Jesus' birth. Mark is frequently symbolized as a lion, calling to mind the desert scene that opens his story

Let's Talk About This!

What year do most think the Gospel of Mark was written?

Who is a possible author for the Gospel of Mark?

Why do you think the author chose to write the Gospel for the Gentiles?

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently full for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more at gsc.net/formation/little-lambs.
