SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

Do not spend your life toiling for material gain (Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23).

Psalm

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 90).

Second Reading

Christ has raised you to new life, so seek now what is above (Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11).

Gospel

Be on guard against all greed, for your life does not consist of earthly possessions, but of the riches of the reign of God (Luke 12:13-21).

REFLECT

THE CENTER OF A MEANINGFUL LIFE

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others.

PONDER

How has the Lord answered my prayers?

"ACT AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON YOU;
TRUST AS IF EVERYTHING DEPENDED ON GOD."

-St. Ignatius of Loyola

WORSHIP

ACQUIRE THE HABIT OF SPEAKING TO GOD AS IF YOU WERE ALONE WITH HIM, FAMILIARLY AND WITH CONFIDENCE AND LOVE, AS TO THE DEAREST AND MOST LOVING OF FRIENDS. SPEAK TO HIM OFTEN OF YOUR BUSINESS, YOUR PLANS, YOUR TROUBLES, YOUR FEARS - OF EVERYTHING THAT CONCERNS YOU. CONVERSE WITH HIM CONFIDENTLY AND FRANKLY; for God is not wont to speak to a soul that does not speak to Him.

- ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

Fully Alive

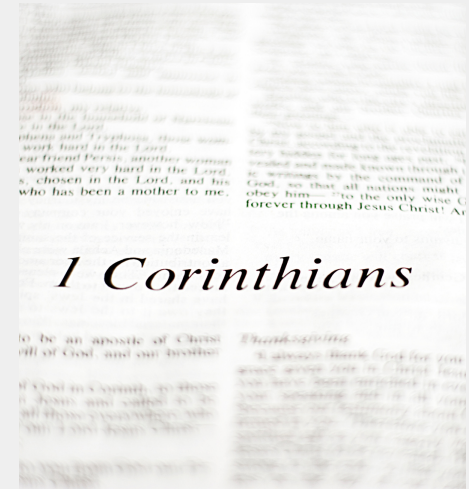

Liturgical Living for Every Day

First Corinthians

On Sundays between Christmas Time and Lent, the Second Reading at Mass is taken from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians. On Ordinary Time Sundays throughout the year, the Second Reading gives us several excerpts from the same New Testament letter for several consecutive weeks. Usually we hear from a given letter for one series of weeks every three years. However, Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians is an exception. It is a long, important letter, so the lectionary divides it up into three parts. We hear from it every year as Ordinary Time first gets underway.

Earlier in his career, St. Paul had made a lengthy visit to Corinth. After he left, members of the young Christian community contacted him about some problems and questions they were facing in his absence. St. Paul deals with these issues one by one. When we read the letter today, we learn about the challenges in the early church and the position Paul held on controversial topics, and we realize that some things haven't changed. It is comforting to know that the issues we face today are not new and that the solutions Paul proposes are still practical and inspirational.

The letter includes many famous passages: the divided community of Corinth, God's choice of the weak instead of the strong, the Cross of Christ as a stumbling block for many, the unmarried life, the imperative to preach the Gospel, the Body of Christ, the gift of love, the Resurrection of Christ, and the eternal life of believers. For several weeks each year, we hear familiar passages from one of the Bible's great letters. The pastoral, hopeful message of Paul can always inspire those who drop every thing else and listen to his words.

Hey Family, Let's Talk About This!

During Mass, the First Reading is typically taken from the Old Testament, except during the Easter season, where is the Second Reading taken from?

How often do we hear from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians?

What topics did St. Paul write about in his letter? We invite your family to choose one and take a look in your Bible about what St. Paul said.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Draw near to your servants, O Lord,
and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness,
that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide,
you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

COMING UP AT GSCC

AUG 1 HOW TO HAVE A CONVERSATION ABOUT ABORTION

Monday, August 1
6:00pm - Upper Room

Does talking about abortion always leave you mad, frustrated, or ruminating over what you said? If so, this training is for you. Talking about abortion doesn't have to be so hard. There's a method of dialogue created and tested that you are invited to learn. If you want to start feeling confident talking about this issue with literally anyone, come and learn. Get your questions answered and learn to cool down and ask the right questions. Teens that understand the subject matter are encouraged to come. Childcare is provided. This event is offered free of charge but that donations to the organization presenting, Justice For All, are encouraged.

AUG 3 THE LIFE & SPIRITUALITY OF ST. CLARE OF ASSISI

Wednesday, August 3

8:00pm - Church

Join us as Sister Margaret Carney, OSF, STD, takes us through the life and spirituality of St. Clare of Assisi. Sister Margaret is the author of "Light of Assisi: The Story of St. Clare." The following is a synopsis of her book, the basis for this talk:

While weaving together Clare's story and Francis's story, Margaret Carney draws special attention to Clare's significant contribution to the Franciscan world in the many years following Francis's death. Far from merely reflecting Francis's light, Clare had her own charism, "a gift bestowed by the Spirit of the Lord and given to her in a fullness and forcefulness that was hers alone."

CRHP WOMEN'S & MEN'S RETREATS

Christ Renews His Parish is a spiritual renewal weekend designed to help individuals grow in their personal relationship with Jesus Christ and with others in their faith community. It is an excellent opportunity for Catholics to renew their understanding of the basic beliefs and traditions of their faith. It is a time to relax, pray, think about our priorities and refresh ourselves spiritually. More importantly, it allows you the opportunity to examine, rediscover, and intensify your personal relationship with Christ. The CRHP – Christ Renews His Parish – Ministry has been making a difference at Good Shepherd for the last twelve years. We are pleased to inform you that women and men of CRHP 23 are in formation and preparing for the CRHP 24 retreats!

Ready to jump in and supercharge your spiritual life? Register for the upcoming retreats at gsc.net/CRHP. The women's retreat will be August 6-7 and the men's retreat will be August 20-21. See you there!

Dear Teachers, Staff, and Students:

Peace and all Good!

As a new school year gets underway, Fr. Ron, Fr. John Mark, and Fr. Zack join me in praying for all of you.

To teachers and staff: Teaching and caring for students is a blessing and privilege. As you deal with the challenges that you will face during the year, we urge you to strive to create an atmosphere of love, respect, concern, and a healthy learning space for each child. Assure your students that they are loved and help them develop a strong conscience through an appreciation of God's goodness. Teach them to value God's world, to respect and love others, to learn self-discipline, to form good habits, and to share with those in need. Thank you so very much for the important work that you do and for the many sacrifices you make for your students. It is appreciated more than you could ever know.

To the students: We challenge you to recognize that those who teach and serve you in the schools do so because they love and care for you. Respect them, pray for them, and thank them for sharing their love for learning with you. Do your best, ask questions, search for the truth, and never hesitate to turn to the teachers and staff when you need assistance. Remember, we are all here to help and encourage you to be your very best.

Sound education of the mind and the spirit is exciting, enjoyable, and growth filled. The other friars and I pray that this will be your experience this year and that it will be a blessed one for all of you.

May God bless you all!

Fraternally in Christ and St. Francis,

Most. Rev. Michael J. Higgins, TOR
Pastor

Good Shepherd offers a two-day Mother's Day Out program called Little Lambs. This program is open to children ages 2-5 years old and meets on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:30pm.

Little Lambs' mission is to provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs provides a caring, faith-filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs recognizes the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciates the child for who God created the child to be. We partner with parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that the child grows to answer the call of God's voice. Registration is currently full for the 2022/23 school year. Learn more at gsc.net/formation/little-lambs.
