REFLECT

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

PONDER

How has God shown mercy to me?

WORSHIP

MISS NO SINGLE OPPORTUNITY OF MAKING SOME SMALL SACRIFICE, HERE BY A SMILING LOOK, THERE BY A
KINDLY WORD; ALWAYS DOING THE SMALLEST RIGHT AND DOING IT

all for love.

-ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Cruets

In the culinary world, cruets are small bottles for the vinegar and oil you pour onto a salad. In the Catholic world, cruets may hold water and wine for the Eucharist. They sat on the side table in sanctuaries for hundreds of years, but they are becoming impractical.

The practice in the past is still honored in many Catholic parishes: Glass cruets matched perfectly; you could tell which held water and which held wine by looking at their contents. Short and squat, they sat inside the finger bowl nestled by a white cloth. Servers assisting the priest or deacon first offered him the cruet of wine; he poured a few teaspoons into the chalice. They next offered the cruet of water; he added a few drops. They returned with the water cruet, finger bowl, and cloth; they poured water over the priest's fingers into the bowl and he dried them with the cloth.

Although the ceremony has not changed, the shape and arrangement of the vessels has. When Communion is offered under both forms to the entire assembly, keeping the wine for Mass in a small cruet is simply impractical. A larger vessel, a carafe, is needed for the wine. The priest or deacon pours the wine from the carafe into the chalices on the altar. Obviously, the size of the water container can be much smaller and need not match the carafe.

Furthermore, it is less likely to see the wine on the side table at the beginning of Mass. It will be brought to the altar in procession with the bread and the gifts for the Church and the poor. Placing two cruets inside the finger bowl is like storing the vinegar and oil cruets at home in the sink. It may look neat, but it does not express well the purpose of any of these vessels.

Changes in the cruets represent a significant change in our practice of Communion. Matching vessels is not as important as partaking of both the Body and the Blood of Christ.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION CORNER

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Welcome back to Holy Trinity! We are just a few weeks into the new school year, and it is proving to be our best one yet! We had a great time welcoming families -- new and returning -- at our Back to School Splash Bash and our Welcome Back BBQ. Our students are well into their studies now which include religion, math, science, history, grammar, and literature. They also enjoy Nature Studies, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, Latin, and Spanish. Our Middle School students now have electives to choose from, and we kicked this week off with the beginning of a few of our after-school activities -- Robotics, 4H, Chess, Computer Coding, Art Club, and Fishing Club. We are off to a great start!
