SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

As long as Moses' hands were kept uplifted, Joshua and his men had the better part of the battle with Amalek (Exodus 17:8-13).

Psalm

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth (Psalm 121).

Second Reading

Remain faithful; proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or not (2 Timothy 3:14 — 4:2).

Gospel

God will secure the rights of the chosen who call out day and night (Luke 18:1-8).

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF October 16, 2022

- Sunday: St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
- Monday: St. Ignatius of Antioch
- Tuesday: St. Luke
- Wednesday: Sts. Isaac Jogues, Jean de Brébeuf, & Companions
- Thursday: St. Paul of the Cross
- Friday: St. Hilarion
- Saturday: St. John Paul II

St. John Paul II

REFLECT

PERSISTENCE

Exodus recounts the journey of the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt to the land promised to their ancestors. It was not an easy journey. In today's reading, they are attacked by Amalek and his soldiers, members of one of the peoples who live in the land through which the Israelites are traveling. Moses was on the hilltop with his arms raised to invoke the LORD's assistance in the battle below, a powerful illustration of the LORD's favor upon Israel. If the soldiers were to lift up their eyes to that hill (see Psalm 121:1), they would be reassured by Moses's presence and posture. Paul urges the Thessalonians to persist in proclaiming the gospel, and Jesus likewise commends the widow for her persistence in pursuit of the justice due her. Whether they preach or pray, the followers of Jesus need persistence through periods of difficulty.

PONDER

When do I resist conforming my will to God's?

TODAY CHRIST IS ASKING EACH OF YOU THE SAME QUESTION:

Do you love Me?

HE IS NOT ASKING YOU WHETHER YOU KNOW HOW TO SPEAK TO CROWDS, WHETHER YOU CAN DIRECT AN ORGANIZATION OR MANAGE AN ESTATE. HE IS ASKING YOU TO LOVE HIM. ALL THE REST WILL ENSUE.

- ST. JOHN PAUL II

Memorials in Privileged Seasons

Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter are privileged seasons of the Church year. They shape the calendar by displacing Ordinary Time like ships in water.

Memorials are days set aside to honor certain saints. When one of them falls during a privileged season, the season affects them as well.

If a memorial coincides with Ash Wednesday or any weekday in Holy Week, it is not observed at all. If it falls on the weekdays of Advent from December 17 to 24, on weekdays between Christmas and New Year's, or on any weekday of Lent, the memorial may be ignored. Or the Collect (opening prayer of the Mass) may be taken from the prayers of the memorial, but everything else at Mass still comes from the privileged season. If a memorial falls on any other weekday of Advent, Christmas, or Easter, it may be celebrated fully-with all the Mass prayers pertaining to the saint of the day.

If you or your parish has a devotion to St. Lucy, for example, you may celebrate her day fully at Mass, even though it shows up in Advent every year (December 13). Cyril and Methodius (February 14), however, are remembered on a day that may fall during Lent. Parishes with a devotion to these Slavic missionaries subdue the references to them during celebrations of the Mass when their observance occurs during Lent.

When the calendar was revised after the Second Vatican Council, some saints' days were moved away from the privileged seasons so that they could be observed by the community every year. For example, Thomas Aquinas, formerly observed on December 21, is now celebrated on January 28. Gregory the Great, formerly on March 12, moved to September 3.

Hey Family,
Let's Talk About This!

Who do we celebrate on Memorials?

Why are Memorials not celebrated during some parts of the year?

Does your family have a devotion to a particular Saint? Look up their day and see if it would ever fall during one of our privileged seasons.

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd. You know each of us and call us by name. Help us to respond generously to your voice by opening our hearts to discern your holy will. We pray especially for those whom you are calling to serve the church as priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers. Give courage and guidance to all, so that we may respond to your call and serve you devoutly.

COLLEGE CARE PACKAGES

Sunday, October 30
2:30pm | St. Dominic Savio

Moms, dads and grandparents! College Care Packages are back! We will meet and assemble care packages on Sunday, October 30th.

For more than seven years, we have gathered to assemble care packages for our college students and children serving in the military. Our goal is to keep our young adults connected to their home parish. Please join us and wear a shirt from your child's school or branch of service. Parents are responsible for mailing their box(es).

To keep things equitable for everyone, please sign up for one or a combination of items that equal around $20/box that you are packing. Feel free to bring items not listed here, I have made suggestions. In addition, please let other "new college parents" know about this event. There is no limit to how many can participate, but we ask that you sign up at:

signupgenius.com/go/20f094da8ac23ab9-college2 by October 28.

If you plan on making more than one care package, let us know. We want to have enough boxes for everyone. This is also a GREAT opportunity to reach students that you know could use some love.

Arrangements will be of seasonal flowers only, no exotics, and are ordered by the Art & Environment committee only.

Donations of any amount are accepted. Outside of the seasons of Easter and Christmas no more than 3 arrangements can be on the church altar, two placed near the candles and one in front of the Ambo. The parish bulletin will have acknowledgements of these donations on a monthly basis.
