REFLECT

THE END OF DAYS

As we prepare for next Sunday's feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns them prophetically against succumbing to "The End Is Near" syndrome—indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life—healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmastime, helps us to rejoice for the King who is coming to rule with justice.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

St. Januarius

Januarius was bishop of Benevento near Naples in Italy at the turn of the fourth century. He died in the persecution of Christians under the emperor Diocletian. Januarius's grave immediately received Christian devotion.

The earliest available accounts of Januarius's martyrdom were written several centuries after his death, and the details are not considered reliable. According to the legend, he was arrested after visiting imprisoned Christian clerics. Then, together with several deacons and a lector, Januarius the bishop was thrown to bears who respectfully refused to attack. An executioner decapitated each one instead.

Devotion to the saint spread throughout Italy, but it remains strongest in and around Naples. Emigrants to the new world brought their religious customs with them, and the festival of San Gennaro in New York City is but one example of the piety surrounding this martyr.

On several different occasions during the year, a reliquary said to hold some of Januarius' blood is presented to the faithful at the cathedral in Naples. During the ceremony, the container is turned in full view of the people, and the substance it holds liquefies. Participants shout and sing a hymn of praise to God. Although there is considerable enthusiasm for the blood of St. Januarius, communicants at the cathedral in Naples are not offered the opportunity to drink the consecrated blood of Christ.

The Collect for Mass on September 19 says very little about the life of St. Januarius because so little can be verified. It also offers no reference to his blood because of the mystery surrounding its liquefaction. The Collect simply prays that those who venerate the memory of this saint may enjoy "his company in blessed happiness for all eternity."

The martyrdom of Christians still happens, and their witness continues to strengthen others who believe in Christ.

Hey Family,
Let's Talk About This!

Who was St. Januarius, and when did he live?

What day of the year does the Catholic Church celebrate St. Januarius?

What is a martyr?

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd. You know each of us and call us by name. Help us to respond generously to your voice by opening our hearts to discern your holy will. We pray especially for those you are calling to serve the church as priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers. Give courage and guidance to all, so that we may respond to your call and serve you devoutly.

SODALITY OF ST. MONICA

Monday, November 14

7:00pm | St. Monica

Many Catholics experience sadness when a loved one is disconnected from the Catholic faith. Does this describe you? Or someone you know? How can we help? Come to discuss with your fellow parishioners. The Sodality of St. Monica group will be discussing the book The Saint Monica Club by Maggie Green and praying for all those who have left the Church. All are welcome to attend any time and pray with the group even if you do not participate in the book study.

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA

It's not too late to donate to our Wreaths Across America Program! Our American Heritage Girls and Trail life Troops are supporting this program once again in honor of our veterans. Your $15 will ensure that a wreath is placed on the grave of a fallen hero at DFW National Cemetery in December. A volunteer will lay a wreath and say the veteran's name to ensure their legacy of service and sacrifice is never forgotten.

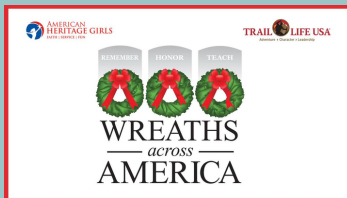

Our troops participate in the give-back program for WAA as a fundraiser and service project. Our wreath laying is on 12/17/22 and we can get sponsorships all year.

GO AND REBUILD MY HOUSE CAMPAIGN

Wow, and thank you! Your generosity is at work to maintain God's house in a truly amazing way. We have already had families respond and have a total of $1,374,737.25 pledged. This might sound like a huge number, and in many ways it is, but it has been through the generosity of many.

We are getting close to achieving our goal of $6,000,000, but we need everyone's help. If you have not yet turned in your pledge card, you should have received a letter in the mail asking you to consider how you can be generous and how generosity continues to bless our parish. Please mail your pledge card or drop it off at our parish office as soon as possible.
